Founder:- Kumari Basanti Manihar

(Established:- 10th June 1996)

Manidweep, A-183, Shastri Nagar, Jodhpur (Rajasthan) 342003 INDIA

By the grace of Maa Tripursundari and inspiration of Maa Sharda Mani and Lord Ramakrishna Paramhansa, the trust was established by Kumari Basanti Manihar (daughter of Late Shri Haraklalji Manihar, grand-daughter of Late Shri Sohanlal Manihar, Kabootron Ka Chowk, Jodhpur) under the Presidentship of Shri Nandkishore Sharda on June 10, 1996, at Manidweep, A-183, Shastri-Nagar, Jodhpur.

Maa Sharda Mani realized that female education in our nation is necessary. Once while celebrating an annual function of a girl's school run by Sister Nivedita, Maa Sharda blessed her and delivered a message to mankind that whoever would associate with this sacred work would always be showered with her blessings.

SPECIAL FEATURES

SELECTION PROCEDURE: The selection of the needy students is solely done by the class teacher. The completed application forms of the selected girls are forwarded by the Principal to the trust. The payment of scholarships are made through cheques and the amount is distributed amongst the students by the Principal in the presence of higher authorities of the education department. Records are maintained in each school vide an order of the Director, Education Department, Rajasthan (Serial No. Shivira/Ma/E-2/Sundries/22605/ dated 26.11.97).

ZERO ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENDITURE: All administrative expenses of the trust are borne personally by the trustees. There is no voucher system in the trust.

DEPOSITS: The contributions collected by the trust are deposited in banks and the interest accrued is given to the principal through cheques for distributing to the needy girls as scholarship.

BHAMASHAH AWARD: The relentless efforts by President Shri Nandkishore Sharda in promoting girls education has resulted in the trust being honoured consequently five times with the prestigious State Level Bhamashah Award by the Government of Rajasthan. Besides, the trust has also been honoured by the Department of Education from time to time.

INCOME TAX EXEMPTION: The trust has been exempted under section 80G of the Income Tax Act.
